

Justice Served

a firm commitment to ending hunger

Justice Served is an effort led by New York City's legal community to close the meal gap in our great city. By donating funds, advocating and volunteering, firms and employees help Food Bank For New York City distribute more meals to our neighbors in need.

This six-week campaign is a citywide challenge to the legal community to help families in need throughout the year. Since its launch in 2015, the campaign has raised over 4 million meals.

100% of the funds raised benefit Food Bank For New York City and its hunger relief programs.

Law firms, legal departments, and other members of the legal community are tasked to compete in customized fundraisers and exclusive volunteer opportunities during the campaign each February and March.
