

Interested in working for the world's largest legal employer? Each year, over 1500 law students intern with DOJ components and U.S. Attorneys' Offices across the country during the summer or academic year. Legal interns work on meaningful issues in a variety of practice areas and on matters that impact our country.

To learn more about the Department and the variety of opportunities, the Office of Attorney Recruitment and Management (OARM) is hosting three webinars: two on Monday, November 6, and one on Tuesday, November 7, 2023. The webinars will provide an introduction to DOJ's Volunteer Legal Internship Program, including information about summer and academic-year opportunities, the application process, and we will answer frequently asked questions. We will also provide a brief introduction to our additional legal hiring programs. You can attend any one of the webinars listed below and access the webinars at the following links:
