

Columbia Law School
Student Certification of Examination and/or Written Work Product
Integrity and Performance

As of the date of submission of this form to Registration Services, I hereby certify that:

- (a) I have not received any information (other than that provided by the instructor or the Law School) regarding the content of this examination,
- (b) Since receiving the examination, I have not discussed, and I will not discuss, it (verbally, electronically, via text, photography, video or in writing) with any other student taking the examination,
- (c) I have not and will not share or communicate, directly or indirectly, any information relating to the nature or content of, or answers to, this examination with any student who has not yet taken this examination or who is taking this examination at the same time as I am (including taking and sharing photos of the exam or related work product), nor will I save such information so as to inappropriately distribute the exam (or my answers thereto) after its administration,
- (d) I have complied fully with all instructions given by the instructor relating to this examination, including any restrictions on access to material or sources of information,
- (e) I am not using any electronic devices (including mobile phones, tablets or multiple computers) beyond those necessary and permitted by the instructor for this exam or as otherwise permitted by an approved and documented accommodation, and,
- (f) I affirm that the responses that I supply are wholly my own and I agree to refrain from using artificial intelligence software, or other related technology tools and programs, to assist in completing this examination unless explicitly permitted by the course instructor or under an approved disability accommodation.

I understand that the relative autonomy of the legal profession carries with it special obligations of self-regulation as required by the Columbia Law Faculty Rules on Academic Integrity and that any violation of this certification will subject me to discipline, including possible suspension or expulsion by the Law School, declination of certification for admission to the Bar, or sharing of information about discipline with Bar admissions committees. I further understand that the Law School may be required to notify Bar admissions committees if a student has been the subject of disciplinary proceedings.
